

IBO ISLAND LODGE

IBO ISLAND LODGE FACT SHEET

UNIQUE DESTINATION: IBO ISLAND

Ibo Island has been described as one of the most unique and magical islands in the world and is the perfect place to explore the beaches and beauty of the Quirimbas Archipelago and National Park in Northern Mozambique. Nominated for World Heritage status, Ibo is an island that is still remote and relatively untouched by large scale commercial developments, and is one of the most fascinating, idyllic islands you could dream of visiting.

HISTORY:

Once Mozambique's most mighty and prosperous trading centre, Ibo Island has remained all but forgotten to the outside world for almost a century. Grand colonial administration buildings lined its streets, and three majestic forts stood guard over this coral and palm-fringed island with its turbulent history of slave trading, pirates, and sea battles.

ATMOSPHERE:

Today wandering around amongst crumbling forts and ancient romantic buildings you can almost feel the history and fascinating stories crunching under your feet. How did all this come to be here, so far away from anything else?

British journalist Nick Maes writing for the Guardian wrote 'It is quite unlike anywhere I've ever visited. If you took Gabriel García Márquez's village of Macondo from A Hundred Years Of Solitude and transported it from the Catholic legend of South America to Africa's eastern flank, then you would go some way to understanding Ibo's overwhelming magic'.

IBO ISLAND LODGE LOCATION:

Ibo Island Lodge is situated on the Indian Ocean island of Ibo just 71 nm from mainland Pemba city, Northern Mozambique. Ibo airstrip details: S 12 20.8' / E 040 36. 14'

Length: 950m, Width: 60m, Radial: 014 Surface: Grass, Elevation: Sea level.

A 25 minute light aircraft transfer operated by Solenta Air from Pemba takes guest to Ibo Island. Private planes can also land at Ibo Island.

ACCESS:

Guests fly to Pemba International Airport in northern Mozambique.

Pemba is now easily accessible from Johannesburg with SA Airlink and also via Mozambique Airlines (LAM) from Johannesburg, Dar es Salaam and Nairobi.

Inter-island boat and private charter air transfers can also be arranged.
Contact Central Reservations for full details on flights and rates.

IBO ISLAND LODGE:

Described as one of the most magical, atmospheric and unique lodges in Africa, Ibo Island Lodge is made up of three impressive mansions, sensitively restored to their former glory and opened as a luxury boutique hotel in December 2006. Mansions Bela Vista, Niassa, and Paradiso are located on the prime waterfront site of the island, where romantic dhows sail out to sea on each high tide, and offering guests outstanding views. Each mansion is over one hundred years old, set in tropical gardens, with walls over a meter thick, lofty high ceilings and elegant colonial pillars.

ROOMS AND PUBLIC SPACES:

There are a total of 14 rooms all air-conditioned with ceiling fans and all individually designed and lovingly renovated to stay authentic to Ibo's history and original architecture. The end result is simple, yet elegant large spaces, with splashes of opulence in the details - silk throws, luxurious fabrics and antiques. Huge ornate mirrors, vintage decor and original solid teak ceiling beams add texture and a proud sense of heritage. Deep verandas either facing the bay or the shady gardens feature comfy teak and cane plantation chairs with soft cushions to sink into, relax and contemplate Ibo Island life.

There is a choice of five premium sea facing rooms, three historical rooms, and six garden facing rooms on a sliding scale of rate. You can also take mansion Paradiso, which was once Ibo's 'hey day' hotel as a private villa option.

ELECTRICITY AND GENERATOR:

The whole of Ibo Island now enjoys hydro electric eco friendly power supplied by Cabora Bassa and fed to the island by means of an underground cable. Occasionally this supply is interrupted resulting in a short period of no power before the backup generator power will be switched on. After dark a torch is very useful and is on the essential packing list. Guests enjoy air conditioning in their rooms and over head ceiling fans which are also found throughout the public spaces including the verandas. 220 volts and most international adapters available.

PUBLIC SPACES:

The Bela Vista mansion is the central public area. As with all original Ibo architecture it features an long central hall way that runs from the elegant pillar lined front veranda all the way to the back, and acts as a naturally cool place as it catches the sea breeze. Off the hall is the beautiful Bela Vista lounge with antiques and interesting vintage décor, comfortable couches and chairs to relax in under a large colonial style ceiling fan. The Bela Vista front veranda is a wonderful spot for taking a coffee and watching dhows sail out to sea in the morning, and is the usual meeting place for all guided activities. The Bela Vista mansion also houses an elegant banquet room with an enormous solid mahogany dining table that can seat 16 – perfect for a group or romantic private dinner for two...

On the back veranda, sink into comfy upholstered chairs overlooking the gardens and our resident masked weaver colony. It is a short walk to the garden restaurant, the main pool and entrance to the spa.

The heart of Ibo Island Lodge and everyone's favorite place is undeniably the roof terrace restaurant and bar spread out over the entire flat roof of the Bela Vista mansion, reached via a large sturdy stair case offering breathtaking views over the bay.

POOLS AND GARDENS:

Ibo Island Lodge is renowned for its lush tropical gardens teeming with bird life, wafts of frangipani and bougainvillea and thick shady palm trees. The lodge has three swimming pools fringed with mature palms providing natural shade and ample comfy wooden loungers to recline on. The main Bela Vista pool is an elevated 16 meter rim flow overlooking the bay and is ideal for gentle lengths to work off chef's scrumptious cuisine! The Paradiso pool is slightly deeper than the others making it ideal for dive refresher courses, and the Niassa pool is perfect for families and smaller children. Each mansion has its own walled garden and grounds offering lots of outside space, and there are day beds dotted around for guests to find a private nook from which to read, snooze or relax.

Bird life is excellent with up close and personal sightings of our resident Mangrove King Fisher, Masked weavers, Little Bee eater, Madagascan Bee eater, the beautiful Lilac breasted rollers, Brown Breasted Barbet and many more.

WINING AND DINING:

The restaurant and bar is situated on the huge roof terrace of the Bela Vista mansion facing west for unforgettable sunsets and affording spectacular views over the bay. Cuisine combines Mozambican and world inspired influences with the freshest of seafood: giant tiger prawns, game fish and Ibo's specialty: fresh crab with fragrant soft, fluffy coconut rice. Romantic and private dinners are served in a number of locations, or on the rooftop terrace with awesome views over the sea.

With prior written notice the lodge will do its very best to cater for simple dietary requirements but due to Ibo Island being a very remote destination, complicated requests are not always possible.

VILLA PARADISO:

Once Ibo's prime located water front hotel, Paradiso is either available as a private villa experience, or on a room by room basis. Described as Mozambique's most historical villa - like its sister buildings Bela Vista and Niassa, Paradiso boasts a magnificent front veranda with a built in stoop clad in soft cushions, original Marseille red clay tiles, high ceilings and solid teak beams. It has its own pool set in walled tropical gardens featuring an enormous mango tree, and mature palms. A private lounge and central hall way links the front and back verandas and features antiques from Goa, with their typical sun burst design, and beautiful Burmese teak armoires. Paradiso accommodates five of our rooms: Two sea facing rooms with enormous bathrooms that share the entire front veranda and three garden and pool facing rooms.

The Sand Bank Beach Experience – Complimentary

A motorized or sailing dhow excursion (depending on winds) takes you one of Ibo's best kept secrets.... A beautiful white sand bank beach totally surrounded by warm blue sea, where the luxury is in the seclusion of the setting. You may have some local fishermen pull up on the beach with their catch of the day, or another boat with guests from a neighbouring property, but there is enough space and photographic experiences for everyone. This is one of the most unique beach experiences in Africa, and is regarded as one of the must do's in the Quirimbas Archipelago. Pack and use lots of sun screen, a hat, reading material, your camera, and beach gear. We take care of the rest!

The timing of this experience is entirely dependent on the tides. Head out to our little piece of paradise for either breakfast or lunch served under our Bedouin tent with your feet in the sand. There is ample opportunity for swimming, strolling, snoozing, and good snorkelling can be found right off the sand bank. Dolphins and turtles are regularly spotted en-route. This activity is weather, wind and tide dependent.

One transfer to the sand bank is included each day for guests – subject to conditions.

Visit the Ibo Island Pre School Project: Complimentary

Mozambique education levels are typically low, especially in the north of the country. On Ibo Island there is just one primary school that works three shifts a day in order to cater for the needs of children. The language of communication is English which we believe is vital for the development of the children and the island as a whole. Our mission is to provide a structured, safe and stimulating environment for our children to play. In addition children are given a grounding in English as well as taught to respect Ibo’s natural resources, the unique eco-system in which the island is situated, and where the basics of personal hygiene, recycling and waste management are addressed.

The facility is coordinated and operated under the care of the Ibo Island Lodge management team.

Scuba Diving:

Ibo Island Lodge has a resident Padi Dive Instructor and offers scuba diving to accredited divers as well as PADI DSD's, Open Water and Advanced dive training courses. You can book a series of dives as a guest at Ibo Island Lodge, or book a dedicated dive package or a mobile island hopping dive safari – one of the most unique dive and adventure experiences in Africa! Ibo Island and her surrounds has some wonderful dive sites that recent guests have been raving about.

Definitely the most superior diving at Ibo is at the light house. It is a long wall dive that covers an area of 1 square km. Starting at 7 m of depth there are large gardens of coral tables, soft corals, bucket corals, green tree corals and at the wall side it falls away to a coral bottom at 21m where divers are likely to see a good range of tropical fish. Highlights on the lighthouse dive are angel fish, massive napoleon wrasse, trumpet fish, damsel fishes, leaf fish, praying mantis shrimp, ribbon eels and garden eels. On the wall side there are overhangs where divers can see potato bass. In the caves on this dive you can also see white banded cleaner shrimp and ghost shrimps. Just off the wall sightings of green turtle are very common with hundreds of big eye travellis, five lined snappers, hump head snapper and southern fusilier. You may also be lucky enough to see dolphins on the dive and often on the way to and from the dive site by boat.

Other dive sites that can be easily accessed from Ibo Island are Matemo, and Rolas Islands, Cocoons, the fantastic Zala Banks at Mogundula Island, and some wonderful shallow dives at the 19th century coal steamer wreck just north of the sandbank beach off Ibo.

Guided Nature and Bird walk - $25 per person per person

Ibo Island is the head-quarters of the Quirimbas National Park. The island is surrounded by the Indian Ocean, and is uniquely located in front of one of Africa's largest and independent mangrove forests. This makes Ibo a floristic kingdom and a great island for viewing the wonderful birdlife of Mozambique. Whether a dedicated ornithologist or an amateur bird-watcher, you will marvel at the wealth of opportunities to see some of the most beautiful, and often rare, birds in Mozambique. There are a number of wooded areas on Ibo and viewing is very good with the incoming and outgoing tides. The islands lush, low-lying sea mangrove forests are a special adventure for ardent bird-watchers and are impressive to be in at sunset when hundreds of birds fly in to roost. For photographers, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Bird walks can be tailor made to suit your specific interests and are arranged with your guide the day before.

Traditional Dhow Sailing Excursion - Minimum charge $120 or $35 per person

Dhow travel is still one of the most traditional and ancient ways of travelling the archipelago. The last sea faring dhow expedition sailed all the way from India to Ibo Island in 1969! There is nothing quite like learning to sail a traditional Quirimbas dhow with the wind in your hair, and a local crew to lend centuries of experience. Weather, wind and tide dependent.

Traditional Sunset Dhow Cruise - Minimum charge: $120 or $35 per person excluding drinks

Sunsets are usually a legendary pink, red and orange affair on Ibo Island and a sunset dhow sailing cruise gives you the chance to photograph mother nature's spectacle against the back drop of historic Ibo, all whilst sipping a cocktail or two out in the bay!

Trip to Quirimba Island - Minimum charge $200 includes a guide or $50 per person, Add an additional $ 30 per person if doing the coconut plantation tour.

At low tide it is possible to walk through the mangroves canals to the fascinating neighboring island of Quirimba. A popular excursion for those with an adventurous spirit taking you into the heart of the mangrove forests. A moderate amount of fitness is required as it is an approx. 2—3 hour walk depending on tides and conditions. This is not a race and the pace can be set by you. Once you reach Quirimba Island you will explore the island that gave the Archipelago its name with its rural villages, culture and old church before heading to the beach to catch an authentic working local sailing dhow back to Ibo through the canal cut by the slaves in the eighteenth century.

Please note that this activity is entirely tide dependent, and often entails a wait on the beach for the incoming tide to be deep enough at Quirimba Island before you can set sail 'home' to Ibo. Based on tide times and wind conditions, it could also mean arriving back to Ibo after dark. Pack and use lots of sun screen, a book, a torch, camera, swimming and beach wear and drinking water.

SAILING ADVENTURE TO ROLAS OR MATEMO ISLAND

Matemo Island South Minimum charge $200 or $ 50 per person

Rolas Island Minimum charge $ 450 or $ 135 per person

Some of the most beautiful islands in the Quirimbas Archipelago lie north of Ibo. Rolas is the next island north of Matemo Island (two islands north of Ibo) and has a dreamy white sand spit to step off into turquoise warm ocean. It is officially uninhabited but it's frequented by local fishermen and occasionally boats with guests from other lodges. Other than migrant fishermen who use the island, or the odd passing yacht and the resident coconut and ghost crabs the island is all yours to explore, laze and enjoy. Island excursions have to be planned and confirmed a minimum of 24 hours in advance. Subject to the availability of boats and guides and weather and tide dependant.

Ibo Massage and Relax treatments

Ibo's treatments have been culturally inspired and can include traditional body scrubs prepared using Ibo coarse sea salt and zesty lemon grass grown locally as part of the lodges' garden project.

The characteristic Ibo Island Musiro 'white face mask' is also popular. Traditionally made from the bark of a tree and painted onto the face using a coconut husk brush, the gentle paste ensures skin is protected from the sun and when removed leaves skin silky soft. The Musiro mask is typically traditional to northern Mozambique and is the exotic and beautiful mask that many of the Ibo women wear daily.
